Bernina Express

St. Moritz – Tirano – Lugano

The Bernina Express runs through the ancient landscape of Switzerland's beautiful Grisons (Graubünden) region, crossing 55 tunnels, 196 bridges along the way. Special panoramic cars will let you admire the eternal glaciers, viaducts and palm trees from the comfort of your seat. The final stretch of the Bernina Express line has been classed as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2008. To enjoy a bit of the Southern charm, you change in Tirano to the Bernina Express Bus which will take you onwards to Ticino. Through the vineyards to Veltlin and along the banks of Lake Como, this lovely journey ends in Lugano, Ticino's largest town.

Day 1: Arrival St. Moritz

Transfer by train from the border, airport or any other destination in Switzerland to St. Moritz. Short walk to your hotel, check in and leisure time.

St. Moritz is often referred to as an Alpine metropolis. There are numerous luxury hotels, spas and upscale shops against the Alpine background of lakes and mountains. Overnight in St. Moritz.

Day 2: St. Moritz - Lugano with Bernina Express

Board the narrow-gauge Bernina Express at St. Moritz station and enjoy one of the most impressive scenic rail journeys Switzerland has to offer. Climbing over the spectacular Bernina Pass to more than 2253m, you pass snow covered mountain peaks and glaciers then descend towards Poschiavo and Brusio. Travel over circular viaducts and pass through winding tunnels before reaching Tirano in Italy which is the end of the Bernina line. Change to the Bernina Express Bus which will take you onwards to Ticino. Through the vineyards of Veltlin and along the banks of Lake Como this lovely journey ends in Page | 6 Lugano – Southern Switzerland’s largest town. Overnight in Lugano.

Day 3: Departure

After your breakfast you have more leisure time in Lugano, the largest town in the holiday region of Ticino. Lugano is not only Switzerland’s third most important financial centre and a conference, banking and business centre, but also a town of parks and flowers, villas and sacred buildings. With Mediterranean flair, Lugano offers all the advantages of a world-class city, combined with the cachet of a small town.

Transfer by rail to the airport/border for your departure back home or to your next holiday destination.
