On the tracks of the GoldenPass Line Lucerne – Interlaken – Montreux

Combine three of the most attractive regions in Switzerland in one exciting rail holiday on the GoldenPass Line from Central Switzerland via the Bernese Oberland to the Lake Geneva region. Two languages, three worlds, six lakes, one line: That's the GoldenPass Line. In Montreux, palm trees and southern ambience still prevail along the "Swiss Riviera". French peppers the air. The golden panorama train winds through vineyards and gardens on its ascent, one last glimpse back at Lake Geneva, a tunnel, then black fir trees, fast-flowing streams, cosy chalets in the valley and on the slopes. Lake Thun soon comes into view en route to Interlaken. The train, which waits here, will introduce you to the beauty of Lake Brienz and the Giessbach waterfalls near Brienz, before moving on.

Day 1: Arrival Lucerne

Transfer by train from the border, airport or any other destination in Switzerland to Lucerne. Short walk from the railway station to your hotel. Depending on your arrival time, take the opportunity to discover the Old Town on your own. Lucerne, the gateway to central Switzerland, situated on Lake Lucerne, is enshrined in an impressive mountainous cradle. Thanks to its attractions, the beautiful lakeside setting and the nearby mountains of the Rigi, Pilatus and Stanserhorn, the town is a popular destination for groups and individuals on their journey through central Switzerland. Overnight in Lucerne.

Day 2: Lucerne – Montreux with GoldenPass Line

After breakfast, short walk to the railway station. The trains of the Zentralbahn are waiting for you for a small trip around the Swiss world: two languages, three states, six lakes, one line – that's the GoldenPass Line. Starting in the German-speaking Lucerne region, the journey takes you over the Brünig pass into the Bernese Oberland. Once passed Lake Brienz, you arrive at Interlaken. Along the shores of Lake Thun, you reach the Simmen valley at Zweisimmenn and the world-renowned holiday resort of Gstaad. French language is now spoken. Further on through the wild romantic Pays d'Enhaut with the scenic villages of Château d'Oex and Montbovon continues the journey through a tunnel before the panoramic view of the Lake Geneva and Montreux opens in front of you. Short walk from the railway station to your hotel and overnight in Montreux.
